Report on One - Day Seminar on "IMPORTANCE OF PLAGIARISM IN RESEARCH"

Date : 08/07/2022
Topic : "IMPORTANCE OF PLAGIARISM IN RESEARCH"
Speaker : Mr. Shariff
M.Tech, (Ph.D).
Associate Professor, AIET
No of participants : 122

Mr. V. Uma Sankar, Head of the Department, Avanthi Institute Of Pharmaceutical Sciences, started the session by addressing the students and introduced the speaker to the audience. Later the session was hand-overed to the speaker. The speaker started the session with greeting all the participants. The participants include students of B.Pharm final year. In the beginning, the speaker gave brief knowledge about what is plagiarism, why plagiarisms are needed and why plagiarisms have become so important these days. Further the speaker talked about what all could be done and what should not be. For anything to get plagiarized, it should be:

- New
- Unique and
- Generally unobvious

The things that cannot get patented include:

- Naturally occurring substances
- Laws of nature
- Copied ideas or already patented ideas

He extended his lecture discussing the importance of avoiding plagiarism in research, consider emphasizing its ethical implications, detrimental effects on academic integrity, and the importance of originality in contributing to the advancement of knowledge. Exploring proper citation practices, academic honesty, and the consequences of plagiarism.

Speaker also insisted that Plagiarism in research is critical to address due to several reasons like Maintaining Academic Integrity, Ethical Considerations, Preserving Credibility, Intellectual Development and Legal and Professional Consequences.

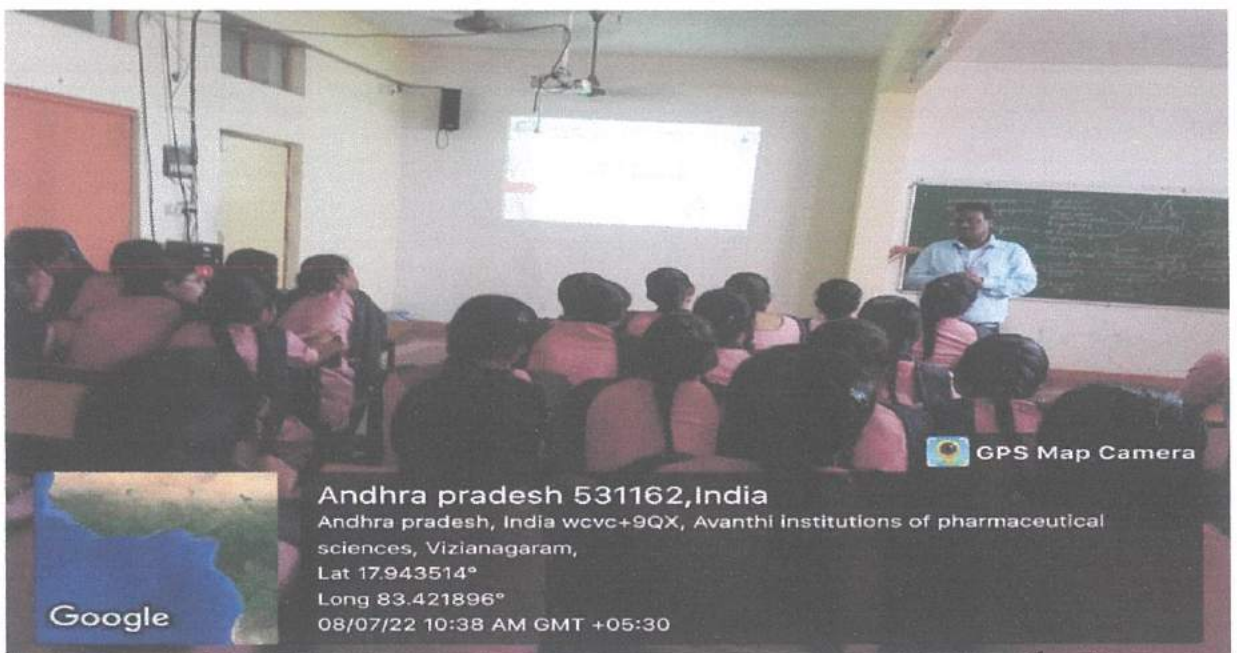

In summary, Speaker emphasized the importance of avoiding plagiarism underscores the significance of upholding ethical standards, maintaining the integrity of academic work, and fostering a culture of originality and innovation in research.

Mr. V. Uma Sankar, vice principal, Avanathi institute of pharmaceutical Sciences started the session by addressing the students and introduced the speaker to the audience. Later the session hand-over to the speaker. The speaker started the session with greeting all the participants. The participants include students. In the beginning, the speaker gave brief knowledge about the seminar gave a good understanding of the methodologies that are present for research in India and how to benefit from it. He made us know that the Research methodology is a way to systematically solve the research problems. It may be understood as a scientific study of how research is done. In it, we study the various steps that are generally adopted by a researcher in studying his research problem along with the logic behind them. It is necessary for the researcher to know not only the research methods/techniques but also the methodology.

Researchers not only need to know how to develop certain indices or tests, to calculate the mean, the mode, the median or the standard deviation or chi-square, to apply Particular research techniques, but they also need to know which of these methods or techniques, are relevant and which are not, and what they mean and indicate and why.

Researchers also need to understand the assumptions underlying various techniques and they need to know the criteria by which they can decide that certain techniques and procedures are applicable to certain problems and others. All this means that it is necessary for the researcher to design his methodology for his problem as the same may differ from problem to problem.

Description about the program: The webinar entitled “How Technological Advancements are Transforming Clinical Research Careers” was conducted by Avanathi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences on 14.06.2023. All the faculty and the students of M.pharm and Pharm D has actively participated in the virtual seminar. C.S. Mujeebuddin delivered a spell bound talk on the importance of Clinical Research Careers.

Clinical research is a competitive growing field which provides rewarding career opportunities for all well qualified pharmacy graduates and life science students. The career time lines strength from past to future regarding various streams. After commercially available treatments have failed, patients must navigate a complicated process to find, enroll and participate in a clinical trial. Technology advancements like Artificial Intelligence has the power to change every stage of the clinical trials process, from finding a trial to enrollment to medication adherence. AI and IOT for remote patient monitoring like check your heart in 30 sec .

Report on One - Day Seminar on “IMPORTANCE OF PATENT ORIENTED RESEARCH IN PHARMACY DIVISION”

Date: 03/10/2022
Participants: Students
Topic: “IMPORTANCE OF PATENT ORIENTED RESEARCH IN PHARMACY DIVISION”
Speaker: Mr. M. Satyanarayana Rao
General Manager - HR
Divis Laboratory
VSP

No of participants: -175

Mr. V Uma Sankar, Vice principal, Avanathi institute of pharmaceutical sciences, started the session by addressing the students and introducing the speaker to the audience. Later the session hand over to the speaker. The speaker is Mr. M. Satyanarayana Rao, General Manager – HR, Divis Laboratory , VSP.

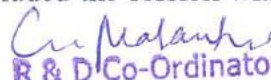

He started his lecture by talking about what is patent? types of pharmaceutical patents available they are product patent, process patent, product by process patent and formulation patents. He also discussed about patent-based research in that he explained why should I search patent literature, before starting a R&D-project, an effective study of the state of the art is useful and advisable. It should not only focus on books and scientific journals, but also take patent information into account. The patent system is the most prolific and up-to date source of information on applied technology. Patents contain detailed technical information which often cannot be found anywhere else: up to 80% of current technical knowledge can only be found in patent documents. And also, he spoke about the importance of patent in research methodology.

At last, the speaker cleared all the dilemmas of the students and concluded the session with vote of thanks by Mr. V. Uma Sankar, Vice principal sir , AVNP.

To,
The Principal,
Avanathi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences,
Cherukupally,
Vizianagaram .

Respected sir,

Sub: Request for an approval to conduct a virtual seminar on “Applicaton of SPSS software in clinical data analysis for pharmacoepidemiological research”-reg.

This is to inform you that the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences is planning to conduct a virtual seminar on “Applicaton of SPSS software in clinical data analysis for pharmacoepidemiological research” on 24-01-2023. The resource person for the seminar is

Dr. K.RAJ KIRAN
Prof. & Principal
Sri Shivani College of Pharmacy,Srikakulam

The resource person’s lecture would enlighten all the participants about pursuing research and publications. We request you to give permission to organize the seminar on the above mentioned date.

Thanking you sir.

Yours Sincerely

REPORT

Topic : “Application of SPSS Software in clinical data analysis for Pharmaco epidemiological research”

Speaker : Dr. K.RAJ KIRAN
Prof. & Principal
Sri Shivani College of Pharmacy

Meeting platform : Seminar hall
Participants : Students and Faculty
No. Of Participants : 92

Seminar on Application of SPSS Software in clinical data analysis for pharmacoepidemiological research”, organized by the department of Pharmaceutical Sciences was inaugurated by Dr. K.Raj kiran, Principal, Sri Shivani College of Pharmacy. The seminar gave a good understanding on the application of SPSS software in clinical data analysis for pharmacoepidemiological research. It has given wide knowledge on SPSS (statistical package for social sciences), also known as IBM SPSS statistics, is a software package used for analysis of statistical data. Although the name of SPSS reflects its original use in the field of social sciences, its use has expanded into other data markets like healthcare, marketing and education research. Common sources of SPSS include survey results, organization customer databases, google analytics and server log files.

SPSS is revolutionary software mainly used by research scientists which help them process critical data in simple steps. Working on data is a complex and time consuming process, but this software can easily handle and operate information with the help of some techniques. These techniques are used to analyze, transform, and produce a characteristic pattern between different data variables. In addition to it, the output can be obtained through graphical representation so that a user can easily understand the result. SPSS offers a wide range of analysis methods, such as descriptive statistics, inferential statistics, correlation, regression, ANOVA, chi-square, t-test, and more. You need to consider the type, level, and distribution of your data, as well as the assumptions and requirements of each method.

Later the session hand-over to the speaker. The speaker started the session with greeting all the participants. The participants include students.

In the beginning, the speaker gave brief knowledge about the seminar gave a good understanding of intellectual property challenges in the field of agricultural and pharmaceuticals. Madam has explained about the intellectual property, and their challenges in agricultural sector and pharmaceutical sector. In agricultural sector includes seed patents, biopiracy and traditional knowledge, biodiversity and genetic resources. Incase of pharmaceutical sectors includes patent protection and access to medicines, counterfeit drugs, data exclusivity, biologics and biosimilars, global health crises.

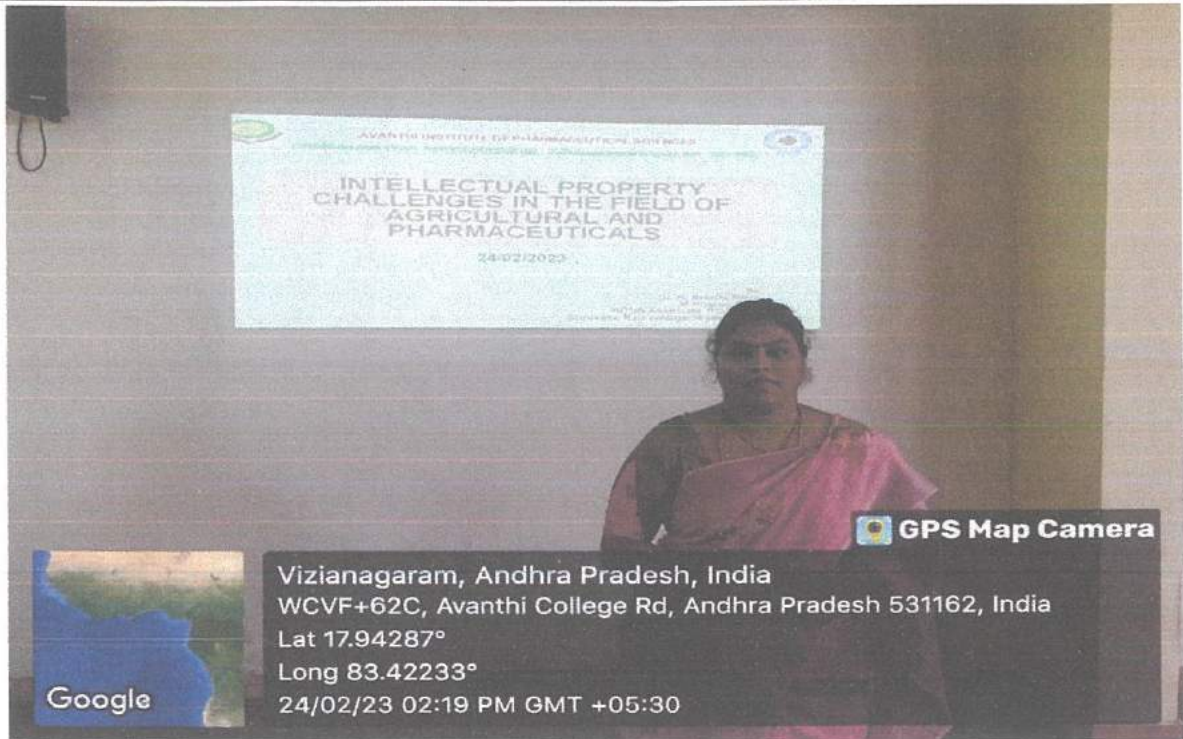

In both the agricultural and pharmaceutical sectors, finding a balance between incentivizing innovation, protecting IP rights, ensuring access to essential products, and addressing ethical and environmental concerns remains an ongoing challenge. Policymakers, international organizations, and stakeholders continue to grapple with these issues to develop more equitable and sustainable solutions.

All the participants showed keen interest in the session and got clarified with a number of queries. The session ended with greetings.

Seminar on Trade mark and copyrights , organized by the department of Pharmaceutical Sciences was inaugurated by Dr. D. Vasudha , Associate Professor, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Vignan Institute of Pharmaceutical Technology. The seminar gave a good understanding of Trade mark and copyrights. She made us know that trademark protects a brand, name, logo, shape or slogan used to sell products and services. A copyright protects original creative expressions such as artistic, literary, and dramatic works.

"Similar to copyright, a person does not need to register a trademark or service mark to receive protection rights, but there are certain legal benefits to registering a mark with the USPTO. While there is rarely an overlap between trademark and copyright law, it can happen. For example, when a graphic illustration is used as a logo the design may be protected both under copyright and trademark. But the main difference between copyright and trademark is that copyright protects original expressions in works whereas trademark protects the business reputation and goodwill associated with the word.

Seminar on Steps to Follow a Patent Application for UK Patent System, organized by the department of Pharmaceutical Sciences was inaugurated by Dr. P.V.Madhavi Latha, Professor, Department of Pharmaceutical Analysis, Viswanadha Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences. The seminar gave a good understanding of the patent application process for UK Patent System . She made us know that the patent application typically consists of a request for the grant of patents, a specification of the invention (containing claims and drawings, drugs etc.,) and an abstract with a summary. Patent specifications are legal documents and can be complex. In most cases, it is advisable to seek help from a specialized adviser or find a patent attorney.

Before applying for a new patent, you should first search for existing patents to make sure that you can protect your invention without infringing on any earlier rights. After searching you will have to prepare and file your patent application with the UK intellectual property office. We should request a search from the IPO, typically within 12 months of your filling date and then receive your search report usually within 6 months. If you choose to continue your application process it will be published 18 months after you file it. You must respond to the comments from IPO'S substantive examination. At last application will be granted or refused based on the IPO'S decision.
