Institution celebrates/organizes national and international commemorative days, events, and festivals

National and International commemorative days, events and Festivals

India is a multi-cultural multi-lingual and multi-ethnic society where people of different cultures, languages, and ethnicities live together in peace and harmony India is known all over the world for its cultural diversity and colorful national festivals. The National festivals like the Independence Day, Republic Day, etc., have a distinctive quality that sets the apart from other festivals. The institute recognizes the importance of these red-letter days in our national calendar. The National Festivals are celebrated with enthusiasm and devotion. Every year, the institute organizes national festival and birth/death anniversaries of the great Indian personalities, social reformers, and freedom fighters. These National festivals are celebrated to sensitize the students about the contribution of the great national leaders to the nation. On the eve of these National festivals, various co-curricular activities such as essay writing, elocution and painting competitions on the relevant topics are conducted for the students. On the day of the celebrations, winners are awarded certificates of appreciation. In order to educate the students about the conservation of the environment, World Environment Day is celebrated. Students celebrate the day with energy and eagerness. They plant trees and clean their immediate environment. On the occasion, students are made to take a pledge to protect the environment in their daily lives. Avanthi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences strives for the holistic well-being of its students, teaching, and non-teaching staff.

WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY

World Environment Day, observed annually on June 5th serves as a global initiative to raise awareness and prompt action on environmental issues. This significant day provides a platform to advocate positive environmental practices and encourage sustainable actions. Activities associated with World Environment Day include tree planting campaigns and awareness. AIPS Principal, Staff and the NSS Wing of the student have actively participated in the program and made it a big success.

The purpose of this day is to underscore the collective responsibility of everyone in protecting and preserving the environment. It motivates individuals to make small changes in their daily lives that, when combined, contribute to a healthier planet. Governments and organizations often leverage this occasion to announce new policies, initiatives, and commitments addressing environmental challenges.

Avanathi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences (AIPS) actively celebrates World Environment Day every year on June 5th, demonstrating solidarity with the global community in environmental protection. At AIPS, environmental preservation is not just a commitment but a policy. The college engages in a significant plantation drive on the campus and in nearby areas annually on this day. Additionally, periodic awareness talks and seminars are conducted to enhance environmental consciousness among students and staff.

Evidence of Success: The students and staff of AIPS participate in planting saplings on the campus, contributing to increased green cover and additional lung spaces. The NSS volunteers, under the guidance of the program officer, organized to raise awareness about environmental protection, reducing plastic usage, adopting renewable energy sources, and addressing climate change. As part of this initiative, saplings are distributed among students and the awareness includes slogans against plastic usage and the burning of fossil fuels.

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY

On June 21, 2022, Avanathi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences celebrated "International Yoga Day" within the college premises. The principal addressed the staff and students, emphasizing the significance of yoga in everyone's life.

The program featured a guest lecture by Yoga expert Acharya Vidyanandaji, an Internationally Certified Coach renowned for conducting regular Yoga training camps. He shared insights on yoga and conducted training sessions in various Yogasanas. Acharya Vidyanandaji highlighted several benefits of yoga, including stress reduction, improved health, positive thinking, emotional stability, happiness, and focused attention. He encouraged students to incorporate meditation, regular Pranayama, and yoga into their routines. During the training program, students actively participated in yoga practices guided by the trainer, Mr. P. Ramesh, who provided valuable guidance. The exercises were well-received and beneficial for the students.

The training program concluded with an address from the respected principal, expressing gratitude for the valuable insights shared by the resource person and commending the college's efforts in organizing such a holistic session. The session ended with a vote of thanks from the Head of the Department. Enthusiastic participation was observed from all students during the "International Yoga Day" celebration, with around 35 boys and 45 girls, total 80 students.

AZADI KA AMRIT MAHOTSAV

Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, is a significant event commemorating the 75th anniversary of India's independence. Launched by the Government of India in 2022, this initiative celebrates the country's freedom and progress achieved over the past seven decades. Translated as the "Festival of the Nectar of Independence," Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav aims to engage the entire nation in a series of events and initiatives highlighting India's rich heritage, diversity, and accomplishments. The celebrations commenced on March 12, 2022, and are scheduled to continue until August 15, 2023, marking the 75th anniversary of India's independence.

Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav spans various domains, including art, culture, history, science, technology, innovation, sports, and social development. The goal is to showcase India's achievements in these fields, fostering a sense of pride and unity among its citizens. Through this celebration, the government seeks to reaffirm the values and principles that India's independence was built upon, inspiring the younger generation to carry forward the legacy of freedom, inclusivity, and progress.

AIPS celebrated Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav with patriotic fervor and zeal. The institute's students and staff actively participated in the event. During this event, participants carried a giant 300-foot national flag as part of the Har Ghar Tiranga initiative and prize distribution for the winners by the chief guest.

Evidence of success: Celebrating "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav" in college can be considered a success if there is evidence of increased awareness of freedom struggles, active student participation, educational events, and positive community engagement. Look for indicators such as attendance numbers, student feedback, and any lasting impact on historical awareness or community relations.

NATIONAL SPORTS DAY

AIPS college enthusiastically celebrated National Sports Day, honoring the birth anniversary of Major Dhyhan Chand, a legendary figure in Indian sports. The primary objective of the event was to promote sportsmanship, physical fitness, and a healthy lifestyle among students and the college community. Various inter-college sports competitions were organized, showcasing the diverse talents of our students. Disciplines such as cricket, badminton, chess, caroms and athletics brought together participants and spectators, creating an atmosphere of friendly competition and camaraderie.

The highlight of the event was the prize distribution ceremony, where winners of the sports competitions were felicitated. Certificates and trophies were awarded to acknowledge their outstanding performance and dedication. Participants received certificates recognizing their valuable contribution to the success of the event.

Evidence of Success: The National Sports Day celebration at our college was a resounding success, bringing together students, faculty, and staff in a shared celebration of sportsmanship and physical fitness. The event not only showcased the sporting talents within our community but also reinforced the values of discipline, teamwork, and dedication essential to a healthy and active lifestyle. We express our gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of this event and eagerly anticipate more such celebrations that promote a holistic approach to education and well-being.

TEACHER'S DAY

Teacher's Day was joyously celebrated at Avanathi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences on September 5, 2022, commencing at 10:30 AM. The event began with the Principal and two students offering flowers to the portrait of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. A gathering of approximately 90 students attended the function. During the speech segment, a student provided the audience, consisting of both teachers and students, with insights into the life of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan.

Our esteemed Chief Guest, Principal M.B. V. Raju, addressed the students on this occasion, emphasizing the rich guru-shishya parampara (teacher-student tradition) in our college. He urged students to respect their gurus, who serve as guiding lights in their lives. Following this, the Vice Principal delivered a speech highlighting the significance of Teacher's Day. The AIPS choir group added a musical touch to the celebration by singing songs. Students expressed their gratitude to their class teachers, felicitating them and presenting mementos.

Evidence of success: Games were organized for the teachers, and prizes were distributed to the winners immediately after the conclusion of the games. Following the celebration, students and teachers proceeded to their respective classrooms, where the festivities continued. Games between teachers and students ensued, and before dispersing, the Principal and some teachers expressed appreciation for the students' excellent organization of the day.

WORLD FOOD DAY

The commencement of the day featured a special assembly, bringing together students and faculty to contemplate the significance of addressing global hunger issues. An informative presentation shed light on key facts about world hunger and underscored the pivotal role individuals can play in fostering positive change. World Food Day serves as a pivotal platform where governments, organizations, and individuals collaborate to discuss and implement solutions to global food challenges.

Avanathi Institute of pharmaceutical Sciences organized the day's events often commence with conferences, seminars, and community gatherings that emphasize the critical roles of agriculture, technology, and policies in ensuring food security. World Food Day encourages people to reflect on their own food choices and their impact on the broader food system. Initiatives like community gardens, food drives, and educational programs are commonly organized to actively engage individuals in the fight against hunger. In essence, World Food Day provides a vital opportunity to mobilize efforts and advocate for a world where no one goes to bed hungry.

Evidence of success: Indicators of success for World Food Day can be measured through various means, such as increased awareness about global hunger, strengthened collaboration among nations to address food security, and tangible improvements in sustainable agriculture and nutrition practices. Reports highlighting reduced malnutrition rates, successful agricultural initiatives, and international efforts to combat food insecurity serve as evidence of the impact of World Food Day.

NATIONAL UNITY DAY

National Unity Day, also known as Rashtriya Ekta Diwas, is celebrated on October 31st in India, commemorating the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. He was a pivotal figure in the founding of the Indian Republic and played a crucial role in integrating princely states into the Indian Union after the country gained independence in 1947. Prime Minister Narendra Modi announced National Unity Day as an annual event in 2014 to honor Sardar Patel's contributions to national integration.

On this day, diverse programs and events are organized across the country to foster unity, peace, and integrity among citizens. The primary objective of National Unity Day is to raise awareness about the importance of unity, especially in a country as diverse as India, where people of various religions, languages, cultures, and traditions coexist. The day emphasizes the promotion of harmony and solidarity among all sections of society, aiming to strengthen the bonds of brotherhood and fraternity.

Evidence of success: In recognition of this significant day on our national calendar, AIPS Management, staff, and students have collaboratively organized various programs, including Essay Writing, Drawing Competitions, and Quiz Competitions. The students have shown enthusiastic participation in these events, and the winners were duly awarded prizes.

WORLD AIDS DAY

World AIDS Day, observed internationally on December 1st of each year, is dedicated to raising awareness about the global HIV/AIDS pandemic, commemorating those who have succumbed to the disease, and expressing solidarity with those living with HIV. The symbolic red ribbon, emblematic of unity with individuals affected by HIV, is prominently displayed during this significant day. Since its inception, World AIDS Day has played a pivotal role in drawing attention to the worldwide HIV/AIDS epidemic.

Avanathi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Cherukupally, marked World AIDS Day on December 1, 2022, in its seminar hall. The Principal, NSS Programmer, all faculty members, and students actively participated in the program. Dr. V. Uma Shankar, our Vice Principal, addressed the audience, providing comprehensive insights into safe sex practices, sensitizing the public, and highlighting the precautions to be taken for AIDS. The Chief Guest, Dr. M.B. V. Raju, the Principal of AIPS, emphasized the adage that prevention is better than cure and urged students to act responsibly. He also called upon them to exhibit empathy towards individuals living with HIV, stressing the importance of dispelling ignorance through widespread information dissemination.

Evidence of Success: World AIDS Day at our college demonstrated notable success through widespread participation and engagement. The events garnered high attendance, indicating a genuine interest and commitment among students. The level of awareness regarding HIV/AIDS significantly increased, with students showcasing enhanced knowledge about prevention and support for those affected.

NATIONAL VOTERS DAY

Celebrated on January 25th, National Voters Day holds immense significance in our college as it signifies the bedrock of a vibrant democracy. Spearheaded by our principal, Dr. M.B.V. Raju, the awareness program aims to promote understanding of the electoral process, drive voter registration, and underscore the importance of active participation in shaping the nation's destiny.

The National Voters Day celebration at AIPS college was a resounding success in fostering civic responsibility and democratic engagement. Kicking off with an inauguration ceremony featuring distinguished guests from the local electoral office, the event underscored the pivotal role of voting in determining the nation's future. Interactive sessions covering voter registration and electoral processes offered valuable insights, cultivating awareness among the student body.

A dedicated voter registration drive, a notable highlight of the event, sought to increase the number of eligible voters in our community. Creative dimensions were added through elocution and debate competitions, along with a poster and slogan competition, encouraging students to articulate their perspectives on democracy and voting.

In conclusion, the event effectively achieved its objective of instilling responsibility and awareness, celebrating democratic values, and inspiring a commitment to active participation in future elections.

Evidence of success : Evidence of success include high attendance and active participation in educational sessions, workshops, and lectures on the importance of voting, electoral processes, and civic responsibilities. The enthusiastic involvement in the voter pledge and oath ceremony demonstrated a commitment to responsible and informed voting in the future.

REPUBLIC DAY

The Republic Day festivities were joyfully observed on January 26th, 2023, at the Avanthi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences(AIPS). This significant event symbolizes the commencement of ethical growth within the student community.

The AIPS Campus was bedecked with the vibrant colors of saffron, white, and green. Commencing promptly at 9:00 AM, the program initiated with the esteemed Principal hoisting the flag. In a display of utmost respect, both students and teachers saluted the flag before harmonizing their voices in the rendition of the National Anthem. The proceedings began with an opening address by the Principal, followed by an inspiring speech delivered by a first-year B.Pharmacy student. Additionally, the Heads of various departments shared their insights on teachings, serving as a poignant reminder of the struggles endured to secure our freedom. Concluding the event, the college Principal addressed the assembled gathering.

Cultural activities, including dance performances and a singing competition featuring patriotic songs, were held alongside various sports events such as Disc throw, Kabaddi, Carroms, Chess, and Kho-Kho on the college premises. The winners received prizes from the Chief Guest. The program concluded with a vote of thanks to the management and student members for their dedicated efforts in organizing the event every year, wrapping up by 12:30 PM. As a gesture of appreciation, all students and faculty members were given sweets after the program.

Evidence of Success: Indicators of success include the peaceful celebration, widespread participation in parades and flag-hoisting ceremonies, and expressions of patriotic spirit. Successful Republic Day celebrations may also be evidenced by initiatives promoting civic engagement, constitutional values, and national pride. Media coverage, public sentiments, and any notable achievements or initiatives associated with Republic Day celebrations contribute to gauging the success of the event.
